COOPER, Anne
March 22, 1925 - October 25, 2007

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Anne Cooper.

Anne was a beautiful person who cherished life and made all those around her feel loved and supported. Even in her final days of life she sang in her sweet innocent voice to give strength to and comfort her family around her bedside. Her family and many friends can never recall her gossiping or speaking a bad word about anyone. She fought valiantly and without complaining, many times conquered a long battle with heart disease.

She is survived by her loving husband and protector of 61 years Allan and her five adoring children; Laurie, Richard, Sharon, Carla and Mark. She warmly welcomed sons-in-law; Lou and Ken, daughters-in-law; Chris and Diana to her family. She will be dearly missed and remembered fondly by her sisters Clara and Raisel and by her grandchildren; Sam, Jenny, Jared and Jesse. She was predeceased earlier this year by her brother Phil, of whom she shared a kind, gentle spirit.

Funeral will be held today, Friday, October 26, 2007 at 4:00 p.m. at Edmonton Jewish Cemetery, 7622 - 101 Avenue.
