COOPER, Barrie

January 11, 1936 - October 20, 2010

Barrie Cooper, of Blessed Memory, lived in Winnipeg until 1971. Before moving to Edmonton in 1979, he lived in Thunder Bay and Ottawa. During his retirement he "wintered" in Arizona. Barrie was a Chartered Accountant and worked in private practice and for the Alberta and Federal Government. Volunteer work included fundraising, committee assignments, participation on Boards and assisting the elderly. In his immediate family, he is survived by his son Sam, daughter Shari Linde (David), grandchildren Jonathan and Daniella Linde, and brother Allan Cooper.

Barrie cherished life, family and friends. He loved animals and had a passion for sports.

The Cooper family is appreciative for the incredible caring and expertise of the staff and volunteers at the Edmonton Grey Nuns Palliative Care Unit.

Donations in his name can be made to Beth Israel Synagogue 780-488-2840, Hadassah-WIZO Edmonton 780-444-6985, Kidsport Edmonton at 780-245-2666 or www.kidsport.ab.ca or to the charity of your choice.
