LYONS, Morris

It is with deep sadness that the family announces the passing of Morris Lyons on March 24th.

Moe was very active in the Edmonton Community during his 80 years of life. He was a senior member of the bar having practised law for 54 years and was appointed a Queens Counsel. He loved the city of Edmonton and was passionate about its sports teams. He served as a director of the commonwealth games in 1978. He was president of B'Nai Brith, and the Royal Glenora Club. Moe was an avid tennis player. The game was one of the most important things in his life. He served as president of Tennis Alberta and the Alberta Tennis Masters Association. Moe also loved jazz music and was active in the Edmonton jazz scene. In his youth, he had a radio show on CKUA.

Moe is survived by the mother of his children, Elaine, his brother Alan, children Gary, Jo Anne and Ainslie, and grandchildren Josh, Sarah, Eden and Lydia. He leaves behind many friends and a legacy of being a true character.

A Memorial Service was held on Wednesday, March 26 in Edmonton.
